♣ Calendar
In honour of the sufferers and survivors of breast cancer, last year we hosted pink day and raised $350. This year on the 27th of October, there will be a pink colour festival. The school has ordered bags of pink Holi powder and these bags will be sold on the day to raise money for the National Breast Cancer. If students, teachers and guests could come dressed in white to be covered in pink. At 2pm we are having a colour fight on the oval with the powder we have bought. Donations will be taken before and during the day, I have set up a page online where people can donate.

Written applications are invited for the fixed term position of assistant for Lavers Hill & District Pre-school, commencing 27th January 2016.
